News and information

Changes to the terms of your account

From 31 July 2023, we're updating the General Terms and Conditions and Key Facts Documents for all our current and savings accounts. These include some changes to when we may not make your payments and when we may block or close your account. We're also making the terms clearer and simpler to read.

Need to complete self-assessment tax return for 2022/2023?

Your Account Summary will be available by the end of May 2023 as an e-Document to view and print in Online Banking.

Supporting our customers, tell us once

If something's affecting how you manage your accounts, such as disability, mental health or problems at home, we may be able to help. Whether it's a permanent or temporary situation, let us know how we can support you. Call us, tell us branch or log in to Online Banking and type 'tell us once' into Chat.

Fraud and scams

Getting to know the techniques that criminals use can help protect yourself and your money.
