Transfer Requirement

Dear Deirdre

We have received a request to transfer your pension benefits to RC Administration Limited.

Most pension transfers are problem-free, however there are some instances of people being victims of pension scams. It's a legal requirement to check a transfer for signs of a pension scam. Before the transfer can proceed, it must meet one of the following conditions:

1. the receiving pension scheme is a master trust or collective money purchase pension scheme authorised by The Pensions Regulator, or a public service pension scheme; or
2. there are no warning flags indicating a pension scam. If warning flags are present, you may have to seek transfer guidance from Money Helper, a free and impartial service. In some circumstances, your transfer may be stopped to protect your pension savings.

This means, we must request some further information from you. Enclosed with this letter is a questionnaire for completion. If you want to proceed with the transfer you must complete this questionnaire and send it back directly to us with any evidence requested. It is a legal requirement that this questionnaire is completed by you. It cannot be completed by a third party such as an agent or introducer involved in the transfer.

Please print, sign and return the completed questionnaire and any evidence requested to the address mentioned on the letter.

We will normally accept electronic copies of the completed questionnaire and any evidence (such as a scanned pdf document) but may require sight of originals, or certified copies.

Please note if you do not provide sufficient information or evidence we may not be able to proceed with your transfer request or it may cause delays.

Once we receive the completed questionnaire and evidence, we will make the necessary pension scam checks. If everything is satisfactory we will process your transfer request and you will receive confirmation the transfer has been made. If there are signs of a pension scam, or we need further information, we will contact you again to explain what will happen.

I hope that this information is useful. If you need any more information or have further questions, please contact us and

Part A – The Receiving Scheme
Q1 What type of pension is the Receiving Scheme? An Occupational Pension Scheme is a pension scheme established by an employer to provide pension benefits for its employees. It is set up under trust, with trustees responsible for running the scheme. Examples include small self-administered schemes (SSAS), defined benefit schemes and money purchase schemes. A Personal Pension is a pension scheme established by a provider/insurer. Each member has an individual pension contract with the provider/insurer. An employer can establish a group personal pension for its employees. Examples also include individual or group stakeholder pensions.	Tick which applies: <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> (a) Occupational Pension Scheme (answer questions 2 to 4 below) <input type="checkbox"/> (b) Personal Pension or Self-Invested Personal Pension Scheme (SIPP) (answer question 5 below) <input type="checkbox"/> (c) Other (please provide details and answer question 5 below.
