Dear Mandy,

SSAS BristolPad Pension Scheme - Saxo account ID: 12563713

As per our telephone conversation, please find attached a signed deed of removal of Cranfords Trustees Limited and a resolution confirming that Ian Day shall be the sole signatory of the account.

Please kindly confirm once the account has been updated.

If there is anything else you may require, please let me know.

Kind regards
Georgina

Dear client,

Many thanks for reaching us.

Please note that we would need the following:

- Updated signatory list since the professional trustee no longer is a signatory of the scheme.
- A documentation (deed) that would confirm that the professional trustee has stepped away, if documentation is not available, then we would need email confirmation re this action.

Kind regards,

Mandy

Dear team,

I have a query relating to the above account held in the name of BristolPad Pension Scheme.

The account was set up with a corporate trustee, Cranfords Trustees Ltd, being a co-signatory to the account.

Could you please advise what would happen if the corporate trustee was to cease acting in this capacity and was not replaced by any other entity? I may add that SSAS is not required to have a corporate trustee. Could the account remain open without the scheme having a corporate trustee?

If there must be a professional co-signer, could the appointed registered scheme administrator act in this capacity?

Kind regards

Georgina
