

1. All transactions on the AIB statements for the tax year are either income drawdown or fees paid to you. I hope you can pull from statements.
2. No assets have been sold or added to from previous year and asset values remain the same.
3. No other information to add.