Personal Information Policy

Under the Data Protection Act 1998 we must comply with various duties for any personal information that we hold about you. For example we must use your information fairly, and keep it safely and securely.

What is personal information? By "personal information", we mean information that is about identifiable living individuals. Your complaint will include a considerable amount of information about you, such as your name, age, workplace or former workplace, and possibly your financial affairs and medical history. When we investigate your complaint you or others will probably give us additional information about you.

How we use personal information We use this information to help us reach a decision about your complaint, and we may need to share information with any individuals or organisations that are involved in dealing with your pension. By law, we also have the power to share information about your complaint with a small number of other organisations, if we think it necessary in helping them carry out their own functions, but we will always consider this carefully before doing so.

Publishing Ombudsman decisions We aim to carry out our work openly and transparently and for this reason we usually publish Ombudsman determinations, as well as some opinions made by our adjudicators, on our website. While our published decisions will usually have identifying personal information removed, relevant information about you will remain in order to explain what decision has been reached and why.
