What we mean by...

Beneficiary reference— A reference that will appear on your statement of the nominated bank account that the payment is being sent to. It helps understand where the monies have come from. It can be up to 18 characters in length.

Destination country—The country of the bank account you're sending payments to.

PLEASE REMEMBER THAT ONLY THE PENSION OPERATOR CAN MAKE WITHDRAWALS

If you're sending a payment from a different bank account than the one named above, please let us know in advance, so we know where the monies have come from.

United States dealing

If you're interested in dealing in U.S. securities, you'll need to complete a W-8BEN-E form in the name of the Pension Scheme. This will need to be filled in by the Scheme Trustees. Your capital is at risk.

Visit www.tddirectinvesting.co.uk. Click on 'Useful Forms' > 'Account Administration' and you'll find the W-8BEN-E—along with instructions—under 'Pension Trading Accounts & Company Accounts'.

Read before you complete

We need to get a good understanding of how you intend to use your account. This includes the source of funds/wealth, monthly deposits, volume of monthly trades and estimated portfolio value.

Please tick the relevant box from each section. We won't be able to process your application if this information is missing, so please make sure you answer each question below before returning the form.
