Dear Sir/Madam,

Data protection registration - your registration has expired

Your registration as a data controller expired on 13 September 2017. You are legally required to renew your registration each year unless you no longer need to be registered because your circumstances have changed.

If you need to renew, you can pay your renewal fee of £35 (VAT: nil) in any of the following ways:

Direct debit - this is the best way to make sure you always renew on time. Just complete the enclosed instruction and send it with a copy of this letter to our Registration Team. We'll do the rest.

Please do not email the instruction to us because we are unable to process mandates electronically.

Online - you can renew securely online with a debit or credit card. Just visit our website at ico.org.uk/pay.

Cheque - make your cheque payable to the Information Commissioner. Put your registration reference on the back - it's at the top of this letter. Please send it to our Registration Team with a copy of this letter.

If you think you no longer need to be registered as a data controller, please phone our helpline on 0303 123 1113. Alternatively you can email us at registration@ico.org.uk to explain why you don't need to be registered.

When you contact us you will need your registration reference and your security number, which we sent you when you first registered.

Yours faithfully
