We'll put any money earned from accumulation units back into the fund to increase the value. Money earned from income units is credited to the product cash account when the fund reaches the distribution date, unless you have instructed us otherwise.

We'll credit any additional shares received from stock dividends to the product account. Income received from cash dividends is credited to the product cash account.

We'll credit any interest received in relation to gilt or debt holdings to the product cash account.

For Aviva Wrap UK Limited (ISA Portfolio and Investment Portfolio)

Cash within your Portfolio is held and protected in accordance with the FCA client money rules, as amended from time to time.

Investments within your Portfolio are held and protected in accordance with the FCA client asset rules, as amended from time to time.

Transaction Activity for your Investment Portfolio AV2647631-001 from 21 August 2022 to 20 November 2022

The transaction date is the date we carried out the activity.

Open Ended Investment Companies (OEICs) and Unit Trusts are valued on a forward price basis. This means you get the price set at the fund's valuation point on the working day after your investment date.

If you are invested in, or decide to invest in, assets which we can not easily liquidate (for example, structured products), it may leave insufficient cash funds to pay charges.

You can see the current balance of your cash account in the valuation breakdowns shown on the previous pages.

Fund Manager Ongoing Charges

Fund managers take charges that depend on the investments chosen. These charges are expressed as the ongoing charge figure (OCF) or total expense ratio (TER). These cover the charge made by the fund manager for managing the investment as well as expenses incurred by the fund. Please note the OCF and TER are variable and may change over time.

Weighted Average

This is the average charge once the percentages of the investment choices are taken into account.

Stockbroker and Execution Venue

All equity trades are executed through Winterflood Business Services, our nominated stockbrokers. Our nominated stockbroker is the execution venue for equity trading. The execution venue in the trading of funds is represented by Aviva, the fund provider or their agent.

More Information

Cash balances

Cash within your products will be held in one or more interest bearing client money bank account(s) with external account providers of our choice. This cash will be held in accordance with the FCA client money rules, as amended from time to time.

The interest rate payable is (negative) annual equivalent rate (AER) and is variable. AER illustrates what the interest rate would be if it was compounded once each year. Interest will be debited from your cash account monthly on or around the 1st of each month. Interest rates can be positive, zero or negative.
