Dear Mrigank,

I hope you are well. Apologies I just tried to call you to have a chat about auto enrolment. My colleague Emily has mentioned that you have enquired about auto enrolment.

Auto enrolment is a requirement for your company, not the pension scheme.

I can see that you have received a letter from The Pensions Regulator to your company Red Bridge Capital (UK) Limited, notifying you of your auto enrolment duties and that your stage date was 1st January 2018.

You must set up Red Bridge Capital (UK) Limited into an auto enrolment scheme. I can help you with this.

It is possible that you may postpone the auto enrolment for up to three months from the 1st January 2018, but we do need to set up the auto enrolment now to action the postponement.

If you wish for me to set up the auto enrolment for your company, then please may I trouble you to provide me with the following information urgently:

Company Number

Accountant name, email & telephone number (if you use one for payroll)

Payroll software used

Directors name, email & telephone number

How many staff do you employ?

Staff Details required - Name, Address, Email, Date of Birth, National Insurance Number, Sex, Date Joined the company, Annual Gross, Monthly or weekly paid

The table below shows the minimum contributions that employers who set up a defined contribution scheme for automatic enrolment must pay, and the date when they must increase. This is calculated based on earnings between £5,876 to £45,000 per year (£490 to £3,750 per month, or £113 to £866 per week), and including certain elements of pay.

Date effective Employer minimum contribution Staff contribution Total minimum contribution Currently until 5 April 2018 1% 1% 2% 6 April 2018 to 5 April 2019 2% 3% 5% 6 April 2019 onwards 3% 5% 8% All employees must be enrolled. Employees who do not wish to make contributions must opt out.

Please let me know how many staff you employ and then I will be able to provide you with a set up cost.

Please do not hesitate to call me with any queries you may have.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind Regards

Hi Mrigank,

Sorry about the delay getting back to you.

Gavin has been busy with Trustee meetings following on from the scheme tax returns. I have had a chat with my colleague, Esther Salmon who is going to contact you today and talk through your requirements and help you with your Auto Enrolment queries.

Once again, sorry for the delay and thank you for your patience.

Kind regards
Emily

Hi Gavin,

Following on from our call last week, we don't feel that we can make the changes to the RBC Pension Scheme in order to meet the auto enrolment requirements.

Can you please suggest schemes that I can be enrolled into?
