Dear Mr Hayes.

The Scheme Administrator acknowledges your election for a pension commencement lump sum of 25% of the value of your share of fund. The Scheme Administrator further acknowledges for your election to be paid as a cash pension commencement lump sum.

The Scheme at this time cannot pay your pension commencement lump sum (PCLS) in full as a cash payment. We confirm that any shortfall in PCLS payment represents a debt against the Scheme.

Having regard to the resources of the Scheme we propose to settle any shortfall by way of a partial transfer of property held at 35-59 Walker Street, Sheffield, S3 8GZ.

Would you please advise if this is acceptable.

Yours faithfully

G.A. McCloskey

Dear Sirs,

I have noted that the Scheme Administrator has agreed to pay a cash pension commencement lump sum of 25% of my share of fund.

I have further noted that the Scheme at this time cannot pay my full pension commencement lump sum (PCLS) as a cash payment, and I acknowledge as such that the shortfall represents a debt due to me.

Having regard to my requirements, I accept settlement of this debt in the form of a partial in-specie transfer represented by a share of property at 35-59 Walker Street, Sheffield, S3 8GZ.

Yours faithfully

Frank Hayes

Dear Mr Hayes.

A payment has been paid to you from Metro Bank in respect of the cash held in the Trustees bank account as a partial pension commencement lump sum.

We have instructed Paul Bray of Lewis Francis Blackburn Bray Solicitors to settle the balance of your pension commencement lump sum by way of a partial transfer of property at 35-59 Walker Street, Sheffield, S3 8GZ.

On completion of this property transfer you will have no further right to uncrystallised benefits in the Scheme arising from the member account recorded on your benefit crystallisation event form.

Yours faithfully

G.A. McCloskey
