

Professional references for Gavin McCloskey of Pension Practitioner .Com
August 2008

“Gavin McCloskey at Pensionpractioner.com was recommended to us by our accountant. I have to say, I’m delighted she introduced us to him.

Gavin has set up our SASS efficiently and cost-effectively but more than that, he’s got an astonishing knowledge of the intricacies of the Pension market. It’s this depth of understanding, which allows him to provide creative solutions to even the most complicated pension arrangements.”

"We first approached Gavin McCloskey of PensionPractitioner.com for advice and help with facilitating a complex property purchased financed from our pension scheme.

The advise and support we received was first class and presented to us in a refreshingly straightforward non-jargon way. We were left very impressed with the level of attention we received and what was a high quality professional service."

“Kindly note we are a firm of accountants/auditors that have worked professionally with Gavin McCloskey for the last 10 years, both in his previous employment and now in his own firm. We have always found him to be of a very high professional standard and proactively helpful in an arena of difficult, ever changing legislation. He acts for a large number of our clients and we have only ever had positive feedback from them. Gavin has always provided solutions, even to the most difficult of situations and we have found him to be honest and dilligent in all our dealings with him.

We have no hesitation in providing him with this professional reference and please do not hesitate to contact us to verify.”
