1. You may be entitled to have our charges reviewed by the Court. This is called “assessment”. Sections 70, 71 and 72 of the Solicitors Act 1974 set out your rights in relation to having the bill assessed by the Court.
2. Where we have deducted your costs (other than disbursements) from money held either on account of costs or from money to which you are entitled in satisfaction of our bill then you are still entitled to object in writing to the amount of the bill within the prescribed time which is one month after delivery of this bill. Sections 70, 71 and 72 of the Solicitors Act 1974 set out your rights in relation to having the bill assessed by the Court.
3. We are entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount of the bill in accordance with Article 5 of the Solicitors (Non-contentious Business) Remuneration Order 2009.
