Hello Sue

Very well indeed thank you - how are you?

I was doing the Tokyo Marathon on Sunday and just back yesterday evening.

I think I've found the issue which was the same payment of £142.80 rejected several times as the old account was closed. It then went through at last to your new account.

If you could have a look at the attached Sue which covers the above and then we can speak again? I have copied Emily in so that she is aware of our discussion on this matter.

With best wishes,

Andrew

Subject: Queries on account

Hi Andrew, hope you're well? I sent a query on the account to Emily and she mentioned she had forwarded it to you...have you had a chance to have a look at it?
Many thanks Sue
