

Dear Emily,

Thank you for your email. The movement on the loan accounts represents the application of loan interest due. There were no new loans or repayments in the year.

Please let me know if you require any further information?