We pay interest to you without any tax taken off (gross). To find out if you have to pay tax on the interest you earn, please contact HMRC.

AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and shows what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and added each year.

For details of interest rates on our range of savings accounts, please visit our website: thecoventry.co.uk, phone our Customer Service Centre, or call into any branch.

Your statement

Please check your statement carefully to see if all payments are correct. If you're not sure about any of them, visit any branch or phone our Customer Service Centre.

Payments into your account

Not all Coventry Building Society accounts allow electronic payments into them, please check your terms and conditions. If you're arranging with another bank or building society to pay money into your Coventry Building Society account, use these details:

- Sort Code 40-63-01
- Your Coventry Building Society account number 78502585.

Financial Services Compensation Scheme

Your account is covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS).

Your eligible savings with Coventry Building Society are protected up to a total of £85,000 by the FSCS, the UK's deposit guarantee scheme. Any savings you hold above the limit are unlikely to be covered.

For further information about the compensation scheme, please check the FSCS website at www.fscs.org.uk, contact any branch or phone our Customer Service Centre.

In addition, if you'd like a copy of an information sheet and exclusions list which gives further details, as well as listing what's not covered, please contact us.
