How we got here

- EXANTE's founders stepped into the market in 2011 to provide direct access to global investment instruments for professional traders.
- Doing so meant building a one-stop solution designed explicitly with professional investors and institutions in mind.
- We've nurtured what we do for over 12 years, growing our team to 600 without forfeiting our essence as a disruptive market player.
- We got where we are by listening to our clients. We're continuously improving our platform to enrich the user experience.
- The result is a platform that equips traders with the power to execute any strategy.
