Dear Sirs

Our Client: Mary Teresa Adair

Enterpt1 (29 Huntingdon, Cradley, Malvern, Worcestershire WR13 5JZ)

We have been instructed by Mary Teresa Adair in relation to her divorce from John Edward Adair. We understand that you administer the parties' pension investments held under the name of Enterpt1.

We should be grateful if you could provide us with the following information/documentation;

1. The current value of Enterpt1's investment, both including and excluding Unit 1, Howsell Road, Malvern;
2. How the investment can be divided between the parties. We assume that it cannot be shared by way of a Pension Sharing Order as per a usual pension fund. Would the shares have to be sold or could they be transferred into a separate investment in the sole name of one party?
3. Subject to both parties' agreement, could Unit 1, Howsell Road, Malvern be sold in order to facilitate a property and financial settlement between the parties?
4. What are your charges for dividing the pension scheme, whether by way of sale of the shares or creation of a separate investment?
5. Any other information you consider is relevant in relation to the investment for the purpose of the divorce.

We thank you in advance for your assistance.

Yours faithfully
