Dear Buy-Investment-Properties Limited

Reyker Securities Plc (in special administration) ("the Company" / "Reyker")
In the High Court of Justice, Business and Property Courts of England And Wales, Company and Insolvency List (Ch. D.) No. CR-2019-006671

Adam Stephens, Henry Shinnors and I, were each appointed as the Joint Special Administrators ("the JSAs") of the Company on 8 October 2019.

In order to return Custody Assets, the JSAs have drafted a Distribution Plan which must be approved by the Court before any assets can be returned. The Distribution Plan is a detailed legal document with accompanying asset schedules, and it details how the Custody Assets will be returned to Reyker's clients.

I am pleased to report the terms of the Distribution Plan were approved by the Creditors' Committee on 31 July 2020 and the Distribution Plan was submitted to Court on 6 August 2020.

The Distribution Plan has been listed to be heard by the Court on 16 October 2020 (further details are provided below).

If approved by the Court, the JSAs will return the Custody Assets using a series of partial transfers to a number of regulated brokers. The number of transfers will be limited to a maximum of five brokers which the JSAs consider to be in the best interests of Clients taking account of complexity, cost and, particularly, timescales. The identity of the Nominated Brokers will be disclosed once the final terms of the transfers have been agreed with the relevant brokers. Assets that cannot be transferred to one of these brokers will be returned to Clients by way of a distribution process.

The transfer of Custody Assets is a separate process from the distribution of Client Money.

- The Annex does not include Client Money as this is being dealt with by way of a separate distribution (further details below);

Next steps regarding your Custody Assets

No action is required by Clients prior to the Court hearing in respect of their Custody Assets. See below for Client Money.

If the Distribution Plan is approved, Clients will receive confirmation of this by post and be issued with a Client Assets Return Statement (via the Portal), which will detail all Custody Assets to be returned (including Corporate Action Assets received following the JSAs' appointment).

Should any action be required by Clients prior to the transfer of their Custody Assets, the JSAs will provide further information in their next communication which will be issued shortly following the Court hearing.

Contractual Notice of transfer of Client Assets

For the vast majority of Clients, the contract between them and Reyker is governed by Reyker's General Terms and Conditions of Business ("General Terms"). Whilst the Distribution Plan is a statutory process which facilitates the return of Custody Assets, to ensure compliance with the General Terms, Reyker hereby gives each Client at least 30 calendar days' notice of the proposed transfer of their Custody Assets to a new broker under the Distribution Plan.

Client Money

As previously advised, the return of Client Money from the Client Money Pool (i.e. cash held as at 8 October 2019) does not form part of the Distribution Plan.

Please refer to the Website for full details on the Client Money distribution process
