Dear Sir/Madam

Your Collective Investment Account - 100350490

We have completed the withdrawal from your investment as requested. I've enclosed a Withdrawal Statement for your reference.

What happens now?

There is no action for you to take. We will release the payment within the next five working days. This means the following, depending on your instructions:

If you have asked for the money to be paid:

- Electronically, direct to your bank - the payment will show in your nominated bank account five working days after the date of this letter.
- By cheque - we will post the cheque by the fifth working day after the date of this letter.

If you have asked for the money to be invested in another product with us

- The money will be available to invest by the fifth working day after the date of this letter. You will then receive separate confirmation of the investment a few days later. Any remaining money due to be paid as part of the transaction will then be sent to you, typically on the eighth working day.

If more than one transaction was required to meet your request, we will confirm the details of each transaction separately.

If you have any queries I recommend that you speak to your financial adviser. However, if you would like to speak to us, please call or email our Customer Contact Centre using the details shown and we will be happy to help.

Yours faithfully

Notes

1. Please check the details in this document and let us know within 30 days if there are any discrepancies.
2. You can find information about the trading time for each fund in the Cut-off times and Dealing Points section of our Funds List, which you can find at www.oldmutualwealth.co.uk/fundslists.
3. If “Y” is indicated in the XD column, the XD (Ex-Dividend) date for the fund has passed for the next distribution.
4. Due to rounding there may be a slight difference in the number of units/shares multiplied by the unit/share price, and the transaction amount.
