Action required - we still need some information about your business

We wrote to you on 02/12/2022 asking you to get in touch, but we haven't heard from you.

It's important we speak to you – to help prevent financial crime and to meet our legal and regulatory requirements, we need to maintain up-to-date details for all of our customers. As part of this, we need you to give us some information by 04/01/2023 about your business that might have changed over time.

What you need to do now

Please call us on 02071160124, We'll tell you which documents we need, then you can either email them to aziza.adeniji@barclays.com using the address you've registered with us, or take them to one of our branches.

Please make sure we receive the additional information by 04/01/2023.

If you don't provide the information

If we don't hear from you by 04/01/2023 we'll start to introduce restrictions on your account, which would mean

- Blocking access to new products or services
- Suspending all debit cards for the account
- Suspending business online and mobile banking facilities
- Suspending cheque books – and we won't issue any more

Please get in touch as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely

Aziza Adeniji
